

Industrial Visit
Department of Computer Science & Engineering
AY 2020-2021

Industrial Internship: Airport Authority of India International Trivandrum Airport

Date: July 26, 2021

During their internship at the Airport Authority of India International Trivandrum Airport, students experienced firsthand the operations and management of an international airport. They learned about aviation safety protocols, airport logistics, and the coordination required to manage airport functions effectively, providing them with valuable industry insights.

